

ADAR PAGE

MADE BY THE AWESOME G6-7

NEWSLETTER

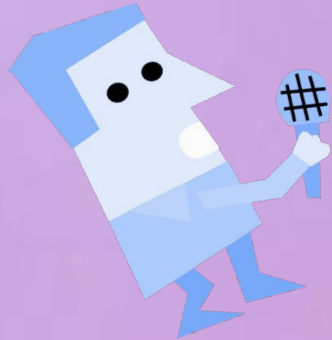

ADAR

Jokes

REBBE STORY TO READ

FACTS

Slide by: DL Zwiebel

MAD LIBZ

HAPPY PURIM

FUN

Jokes & Riddles

How do you know
Shoshan people where Hard of hearing

Because it says
"Who achashverosh"

How do we know they had phones in the olden days?

Achashverosh gave Haman a ring and hung him up

What does haman and
A cookie make?

A hamantash

By: Musia Lew and Cherna Schmukler

Table Of Contents

Page 3 : Jokes & Riddles

Page 4-5 : Mad libs

Page 6: Adar Fun!

Page 7: Fun facts

Page 8: Rebbe story

Page 9: Baking corner

Page 10: Feedback

Page 11: Adar wall

Mad Libz

Esther agreed to go the _____. But she asked _____ to gather all the Jews in _____, and tell them all to Person, Place, or thing Name Person, Place, or thing _____ for three days and nights. And after this fast, _____ would approach the _____ Verb Name

Mordechai did what Esther said. He gathered the _____ of Shushan, especially the _____—22,000 of Person, Place, or thing Person, Place, or thing

them—and they _____, and davened to Hashem.
Verb

Instead of the real people or places etc. switch it up with different words in its place! Try it!

By: Ora Yeshayahu

Mad Libz- example pg.

Esther agreed to go the Spaceship. But she asked Mr.astronaut to gather all the Jews in mars, and tell them all to jump for three days and nights. And after this Jumping marathon, mr.astronaut would approach the Spaceship Mordechai did what Esther said. He gathered the mars of Shushan, especially the astronaut's —22,000 of them—and they jumped, and davened to Hashem.

By Ora Yeshayahu

Purim Fun with Sheva Cunin!

All the costumes are so good at the New York City Purim party that Dina can't find her friend Chaya. Using the picture to your right figure out which person is Chaya.

A

C

E

B

D

F

N	M	A	N	A	H	N
A	H	H	M	N	M	A
H	M	N	A	H	N	N
A	H	H	M	M	H	H
A	A	M	H	A	A	A
A	N	M	A	A	H	N

Find Hama in this Gagger!

Send in pics of your clown!

Take out a paper, and pencil then Make your own clown

Zoom in to find out which is Chaya.

FUN FACTS

It is impossible for most people to lick their own elbow. (try it!)

Like fingerprints, everyone's tongue print is different.

Dreamt" is the only English word that ends in the letters "mt".

In many advertisements, the time displayed on a watch is 10:10.

Most people fall asleep in seven minutes

Los Angeles' full name is "El Pueblo de Nuestra Señora la Reina de los Angeles de Porciuncula (try to say it)

A shark is the only known fish that can blink with both eyes

Some lipsticks contain fish scales.

Dragonflies have six legs but cannot walk.

Elephants can't jump. Every other mammal can.

Dogs can learn up to 250 words and gestures

Post your feedback on the newsletter tab! And If there is something new you learnt!

By Ester Shaina Dahan and Rochel Kaplan

Rabbi Zalman Serebryanski, a senior chassid from Russia and dean of the Lubavitch Rabbinical College in Melbourne, Australia, once brought a girl to Rabbi Chaim Gutnick. "Please, help this girl convert," he asked. Rabbi Gutnick listened to the girl's story. She lived in Balaclava, and from her youth had felt a strong attraction to Yiddishkeit. Whenever she heard stories of the Holocaust, she was deeply touched. She had been reading and studying about Yiddishkeit for a long time, and now wanted to convert. Rabbi Gutnick was moved by her sincerity. Nevertheless, he did not want to perform the conversion. The girl was still living at home with her non-Jewish parents. Would she be able to practice Yiddishkeit in her parents' home? Would her interest continue as she became an adult? Since he could not answer these questions, he decided to let time take its course. If the girl was still interested when she was older, she could convert then. Rabbi Gutnick's refusal put the girl into deep depression, to the extent that she had to be confined to a hospital. The elder Reb Zalman, stirred by the depth of her feelings, continued to visit her from time to time. After several weeks, he called Rabbi Gutnick, telling him of the girl's condition and asking him whether perhaps he would change his mind because of the strength of her feelings. Rabbi Gutnick answered that the reasons which had dissuaded him from performing the conversion were still valid. Nevertheless, he promised to write to the Rebbe describing the situation. If the Rebbe advised him to facilitate her conversion, he would happily comply.

Rebbe Story

Reb Zalman told the girl that the Rebbe was being consulted, and her condition improved immediately. Rabbi Gutnick did not receive an immediate reply to his letter. But at a later date, at the end of a reply to another issue, the Rebbe added: "What's happening with the Jewish girl from Balaclava?"

Rabbi Gutnick was surprised. The girl and Reb Zalman had both made it clear that her family was Anglican! He and Reb Zalman went to confront the girl's mother. At first, she continued to insist that she was Anglican, but as the sincerity of the two rabbis impressed her, she broke down and told her story. She had been raised in an Orthodox Jewish home in England. As a young girl, she had rebelled against her parents and abandoned Jewish life entirely, marrying a gentile and moving to Australia. She had not given Yiddishkeit a thought since. She loved her daughter, however, and would not oppose her if she wished to live a Jewish life.

Once the girl's Yiddishkeit was established, Rabbis Serebryanski and Gutnick helped her feel at home in Melbourne's Lubavitch community. She continued to make progress in her Jewish commitment, and today is a teacher in a Lubavitch school. But Rabbi Gutnick still had a question: How did the Rebbe know she was Jewish? At his next Yechidus he mustered the chutzpah to ask.

The Rebbe replied that, at Reb Zalman's urging, the girl had also written him a letter. "Such a letter," the Rebbe declared, "could only have been written by a Jewish girl."

Put your feedback on the newsletter tab

By Devorah R Rapoport and Chaya Simon

Recipe

2 sticks of margarine or butter.

1 cup brown sugar

1 egg

1 teaspoon vanilla
extract

1 teaspoon baking powder.

2 and $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of flour.

Store bought frosting.
Or if you have a good recipe you can use it.

BAKING CORNER

Purim Mask cookies.

Instructions. Preheat oven to 450.

Cream margarine and sugar very well.

Add in the egg and vanilla mix that Very well

When mixed very well mix in flour and baking powder.

Referigde the dough for an hour.

Make mask shaped cookies with the dough then put it in the oven for 7-9 minutes till golden brown. Let it cool for 3 minutes then decorate it however you like. ENJOY!

Send us a picture of how your cookies came out to properly be featured in our next newsletter.

By Chanie Geisinsky and Chaya Mushka Simmonds.

All the people who sent in comments and answers from the Teves Newsletter!! Thank you!

Shternie Hecht
Mushka Kaminetsky
Sara Rosenfeld
Tiferet Rivka Greenberg
Mushka Wilhelm
Menucha Danzinger

If you post a picture of you reading the newsletter or of one of the activities here it may just be posted on our next newsletter!!

Post your feedback on the newsletter tab! And If there is something new you learnt! And you might be posted on the next Newsletter slide! Just be sure to put your name!

Adar Wall

This wall will be full next newsletter with you pictures!

Send pictures of your purim costume to the newsletter tab and you can be featured on our next newsletter!

THANK YOU G7 FOR MAKING THIS AWESOME
NEWSLETTER

Lchain

GO G7!!!

Guess who is who to be featured in the next newsletter that G6-7 makes!